Death in Custody Law Enforcement Custodial Death Report

What deaths should be reported?

The law enforcement custodial death report includes death of ALL persons “in process of arrest”

- In the physical custody, or under the physical restraint of law enforcement officers, even if the person was not formally under arrest at the time;
- Killed by any use of force by law enforcement officers;
- At crime/arrest scene or medical facility prior to booking;
- While in transit to or from law enforcement facilities;
- While confined in lockups or booking centers (facilities from which arrestees are usually transferred within 72 hours and not held beyond arraignment).
